

MASSACHUSETTS LAWYERS WEEKLY

Last-minute resolution reached in gender bias suit vs. Dechert

By: David E. Frank February 14, 2013

After more than two years of pre-trial haggling, which included summary judgment arguments last May and a flurry of motions in the past several weeks in which the parties sought to exclude much of their opponent’s evidence, the two sides showed up at the Moakley Courthouse in Boston on Feb. 11 for what was supposed to be a five-day trial.

Subscribe Login

Print, Digital &amp; Mobile 1 Year $379	YOUR PERFECT FIT FOR LOCAL NEWS  PRINT   DIGITAL   MOBILE Subscribe	Digital &amp; Mobile Only 1 Month $29 <hr/> 1 Year $315
--	---	---

Issue: FEB. 18 2013 ISSUE

YOU MIGHT ALSO LIKE

WHITFIELD LARRABEE

For Brookline attorney, no end in sight to complaints against Trump, associates

STEVEN BROADLEY

Worcester PI firm throws down in battle of billboards

Retirement – Purchase of credits – Enrollment
November 30, 2017

Copyright © 2017 Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly

10 Milk Street, Suite 1000,

Boston, MA 02108

(800) 451-9998

»